Macau - a unique destination with a rich cultural history, combining centuries old Portuguese and Chinese customs, traditions and celebrations. For over four and a half centuries, travellers have been coming to Macau seeking adventure and sanctuary, knowledge and excitement, leisure and trade. Macau's greatest asset and attraction is the heritage of a cultural hub where the arts and lifestyles of ancestral China have flourished alongside those of Colonial Portugal and, a remarkable number of historic buildings, streets and squares remain quite at home in the shadows of high-tech skyscrapers and the modern cultural and convention centres.
